

Staff Training

What is Staff Training?

The Woman Within Staff Training answers many of the logistical questions about staffing as well as offering information about different roles and jobs for first time staffers. The Woman Within Staff Training is not designed to teach facilitation skills but rather to provide an overview for all entry-level staffers.

What will I get from it?

- An introduction and behind the scenes look at a Woman Within Weekend, the staffing positions and weekend format.
- An introduction to the basic deep descent processes and staff support roles. You will also get a chance to practice these basic processes.
- A safe forum, in which you can express fears or ask questions about the weekend or processes.

Who can attend?

All Woman Within Weekend graduates who are interested in learning more about staffing the Woman Within Weekend.

When and where?

- Sunday 24th January
- West Sussex

How much will it cost?

£30 to cover materials, expenses, tea and coffee.

How long is the training?

Staff Training is one full day, usually 8 a.m - 5 p.m.
